

A MECHANICAL MARVEL

Do you know that in your basement you have one of the mechanical marvels of the last century? It is the gas meter; the little black box whose dials the meter man reads each month. Invented by William Richards in 1844—seventy-eight years ago. Inventors have striven to improve it. Only a few minor improvements upon it have so far been possible. The gas meter is declared to be one of the most accurate and positive measuring devices ever invented. Put 100 of the best watches against 100 meters in a test for accuracy, exposed to the same varying conditions of heat, cold and humidity and the meters will win out every time.

MATRIMONIAL

A Record of Dan Cupid's Doings As The Days Go By

The following announcements have been received in Paris by relatives and friends of the groom, who formerly resided here:

"Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kehl announce the marriage of their daughter Emily Dorothy to Mr. Charles Landen Templin Saturday, the sixteenth of September, Nineteen hundred and twenty-two, Danville, Pennsylvania." "At Home after the first of October, 810 North Boulevard, Richmond, Va."

RANKIN—SEXTON

—George W. Sexton and Mrs. Lela Rankins, both of Nicholas county, came to Paris, Wednesday afternoon, and secured a marriage license from the office of County Clerk Pearce Paton. They were afterward married by Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the Paris Christian church, in the private office of Judge Batterton, in the court house. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Sexton returned to the home of the groom, who is engaged in farming near Carlisle.

STERLING BILL AT THE ALAMO AND GRAND

"The Night Rose," a new Goldwyn melodrama from the pen of the famous novelist, Leroy Scott, will be shown at the Alamo and Grand Monday afternoon and evening.

Lon Chaney, who will be remembered for his remarkable characterization of a legless thug in the Goldwyn production of "The Penalty," has the leading part in "The Night Rose." All the other leading parts are filled by such sterling players as Leatrice Joy, Betty Schade, Edythe Chapman, John Bowers, Cullen Landis, Maurice B. Flynn and Richard Tucker.

"Forbidden Valley," featuring May McAvoy and Robert Gordon at the Alamo and Grand Friday afternoon and evening, is said to be a mountain tale of feuds and romance that is different.

The story of "Forbidden Valley" is concerned with the last fight between two families who had been enemies for generations. There had been peace for fifteen years because all the Mitchells were dead except one, and he had gone from the valley.

Romance and vivid imagination have been brought to life on the screen in the latest tale of Gouverneur Morris, "Yellow Men and Gold," a Goldwyn picture, which will be presented at the Alamo and Grand Saturday afternoon and evening. It is a tale of action in which the incidents carry the players half way across the ocean to a lost island: A hunt for treasure that Robert Louis Stevenson would have delighted in, developed so many twists and turns that every moment is crowded with excitement.

Public Sale

Bayless Farm!

On October 2, 1922, at about 11 o'clock, at the front door of the Court House, in Paris, Kentucky, the undersigned Master Commissioner will sell publicly the Nathan Bayless farm, situated in Bourbon County, on the Hume and Bedford pike, about three miles from Paris and about two miles from the interurban line. This farm contains 98 1/4 acres, and has the following improvements: One four-room cottage, with good cistern at door; one three-room tenant house; one six-acre tobacco barn; one stock barn, all in first-class condition. The farm is well fenced and well watered. The land is in a high state of cultivation, six acres sown in rye, the balance in blue grass and clover.

Anyone interested may look over the farm and all the improvements at any time before the sale. Mr. Nathan Bayless, acting as agent for the Bayless heirs, will be glad to show anyone interested over the farm, and improvements any time before the sale.

O. T. HINTON,
Master Commissioner Bourbon Circuit Court.
